THE WEATHER YESTERDAY was three dees cooler than it was on Monday-that is e thermometer got up to 101° vesterday, while on the previous day the maximum temperature at the Dispatch office was 1040. There were several sunstrokes vesterday from the unusual heat, but they are noticed elsewhere. We may mention one incident connected with the heat of Monday which s worth remembering. The expansion of the rails at one or more switches at the Chesareake depot, in this city, was so great that t was impossible to use the switches. Eforts were made to cool the rails by pouring water upon them, but all to no purpose; and it was not until the old were replaced new rails that the difficulty was reme-

LOCAL MATTERS.

NSTROKES-FATAL AND NOT FATAL .in Monday Mr. Gabriel Landelle, a cigar mnufacturer, No. 923 Byrd street, was attacked with sunstroke, and died shortly aferwards. Mr. Landelle had just returned rom a visit to the custom-house, where he and been to make his usual report, when he was taken sick.

colored man, who drives a dray for the old Dominion Iron and Nail Works Comany, had a sunstroke at the Frederickssurg depôt, vesterday, on Broad street. Prompt measures for his relief were used, and he was conveyed to his home.

Yesterday about half-past 12 o'clock a carpenter named Edwin Cocke had a sunstroke year the corner of Broad and Eleventh streets. Mr. Cocke was at work in the shade, sawing some timber for the stand that was being erected on the old City Hall lot when he was attacked. Mr. George Jennings and other kindly-disposed persons, aided by Dr. W. H. Taylor, the coroner, dministered the usual remedies, and when the city ambulance arrived, which was telegraphed for, he was conveyed to his home. A dray horse was overcome by the heat about 11 o'clock, on Governor street, near Cook & Laughton's.

About 1 o'clock yesterday a horse attached to the dray of Mr. F. Walbauer fell near corner of Fifteenth and Main streets from the effects of the sun.

The city ambulance horse gave out yesterday about 2 o'clock at the corner of Fifteenth and Cary streets.

Mr. C. A. Johnson, of Goochland county. had a slight sunstroke while walking up Franklin street, yesterday, just below the Exchange Hotel: He went into a neighboring house, and was soon perfectly re-

At S P. M. there was a call for the ambulance from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad depot, but there was no response, the mbulance horse being broken down from heat. The call was for a colored man who was overcome by heat on Eighteenth street. Robert Bailey, watchman at the New York sheds, was taken home very ill from the effects of heat vesterday evening, and was reported dead at 12 o'clock last night. Mr. O. B. Blennis, proprietor of a boardag-house opposite the Exchange Hotel, fied very suddenly last night about 9 o'clock. He was lighting the lamps in his hall, when fell unconscious, and died soon afterwards, from the effects of heat it is believed. His funeral will take place from his late residence at 4 o'clock this evening. The announcement of the death of Mr. William E. Burton, of this city, which occurred last evening about 7:45 o'clock from e effects of the heat, will be received with leep regret by his many friends in this city and elsewhere. Mr. Burton had been comdaining during the day, left his place of siness about 2 P. M. and went to his hotel (the St. James), and about 5 o'clock up to his room to lay down. About 7:45 o'clock a servant went up to his room to light the gas, and being struck with the paleness of his countenance and the fact that he was so quiet, called in some one to see if he was not very ill. played. When they went to his bedside they found that he was dead. Mr. Burton was a native of Richmond, and for many years book-keeper at Messrs. . C. Tardy & Co.'s. More recently he occupied a similar position at Messrs. Davenport & Morris's. He was about fifty years f age and a widower with no children. His funeral will take place at 6 o'clock this afternoon from St. James church. The following is a statement of the ambu-

THE FIRST REPUBLICAN GUN.

VOL. XLIX.

THE RATIFICATION MEETING LAST NIGHT-MUSIC AND CHINESE LANTERNS-AD-DRESSES BY COLONEL M. D. BALL, OF

The Republicans of Richmond assembled last night in mass-meeting upon the old City Hall lot to ratify the Hayes and Wheeler nomination. Early in the evening a band of music was driven around the city to stir up the voters, and before 9 o'clock there was quite a large mixed audience present-white and black, Republicans and Conservatives. A substantial stand had been erected about the middle of the lot, and upon it a band was stationed, and discoursed some excellent music. Around the stand were hung a large number of Chinese lanterns. A cannon was fired now and then during the evening, and occasionally the grounds were by green, red, and other lights. lighted Among the persons on the stand were the following: C. P. Ramsdell, Colonel Calvin Shaffer, John Van Lew, William F. Giddings, Otis F. Russell, James D. Brady, Samuel F. Maddox, B. L. Braselman, Robert Caruthers, George F. Richards, Ezra Hawks, Dr. Gilmer, Colonel Bramhall, Colonel Richards, Colonel Chamberlaine, Nichols (postmaster at Norfolk), Colonel D. J. Woodfin, Captain D. W. Bohonon,

B. W. Hoxsey, Colonel John R. Popham. The meeting was called to order about half-past 8 o'clock by Mr. C. P. Ramsdell, who announced that the meeting was held to ratify the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler. He was glad to see so many before him. The occasion was one of much interest and of great importance to the people of Virginia, and he was glad to know that they appreciated it.

Mr. Ramsdell then introduced Mr. M. D. Ball, of Alexandria, who addressed the meeting at considerable length. He claimed A. M., 88; 12 M., 98; 3 P. M., 99; 6 P. that the Democratic party was responsible for the war; that in his country the secessionists left the Union men to fight the war; that the Democratic party was a tyrannical party, and not patriotic; and that it was a partisan and not a patriotic party.

Mr. Ball then proceeded to address himself to the Democratic platform lately adopted at St. Louis. 'He also said that the Senate would not agree to the House amendments, because they knew that the amendments would do the country harm. He then devoted himself to the House of Representatives, and said that they had passed the bounty bill to catch the vote of the Federal soldiers. He then spoke of Belknap's infamy, and said that his infamy was shown up by a deeply-dyed Republican. During Mr. Ball's remarks the Young Men's Republican Club of Richmond came down the in the chair; Mr. James D. Brady, of Portsstreet, headed by a band of music, and considerable enthusiasm was created.

Mr. Ball then spoke of the charge that is invariably made against a Virginian who sees fit to support the Republican party. Why, in his country the very best people were Republicans, who had made the country blossom as a rose. A voice: They stole all we had here. Mr. Ball: Well, I'll bet you never had ten dollars in all your life. The speaker next said the chief reason why he was a Republican was because he wanted this beautiful State developed, and Auken. the Republican party were the only people who could do it. In the course of his re- Walsh. marks he said that Hayes was more like Stonewall Jackson than any man he knew of. [Hisses from the crowd below.]

Never mind the hissers, said the speaker, I have heard the hisses of vipers before, and I have heard bullets hiss, too. After thanking the audience for their attention, Mr. Ball took his seat. Hoxsey was next introduced. He Messrs. J. L. Fernald and Colonel M. D. said that we are here to-night to decide who Ball. we will vote for.

Several voices: Tilden. Mr. Hoxsey then proceeded to administer a rebuke to the audience for their incame from the Conservatives, and he hoped were filed-amount of liabilities, $477,996.81; a Richmond audience he would be heard involuntary cases—amount of liabilities, history of the Democratic party for the past | none. thirty years. sense in voting for the ticket. Mr. James D. Brady, of Portsmouth, who and accused discharged. contested the seat of Mr. Gayle in the State Senate last winter, was next introduced by of. Mr. Ramsdell as the gentleman who could tell something about the way in which the Conservatives steal ballots in Portsmouth. In the course of his remarks Mr. Brady said that Governor Walker sent for him to come to the Exchange National Bank when he was first starting out on his campaign, and said that he (Walker) was a better Republican than he was. He has turned out to be a first-rate Republican, hasn't he?

[Laughter.] Mr. Brady closed by saying that the music of victory was in the air, and then the band ston had been expected to speak, but a tele- Fox; Worthy Picket Guard, R. H. Brax-Mr. Ramsdell said that Mr. John Langgram had been received stating that he had been detained by official engagements.

Mr. Chamberlaine, of Loudoun, a reformer, was next introduced, and said that the reform he wanted was in a different government than that, found in Virginia. The reform he wanted was found in the muscle of the workingmen of this country.

Mr. W. F. Giddings was next introduced. He stepped to the front of the stage holding a miniature flag in his hand, and said, I hold in my hand an emblem— A Voice: Send for the ambulance.

[Laughter.] Mr. Giddings then proceeded to describe the flag he held in his hand, and the Government from the year 1776. He made a very good, facetious speech, although interrupted many times by the crowd below.

Colonel John R. Popham, after much persuasion, shut his eyes, stepped to the front of the stage, made a short political speech, K. P. Armistead; R. H. S., Harrison Grifspoke of the issues involved in the canvass, and then took his seat. In the course of his remarks Mr. Popham said that the editor of the leading Democratic paper in the South had telegraphed from St. Louis that Tilden had secured his nomination by the free use of his money. He had been nominated by fraud and corruption, and he is a nice candidate for the presidency. At half-past 11 Mr. Popham stopped speaking, the lanterns were taken down, the crowd dispersed, the band played "Hail Columbia," and the meeting dispersed. ARRESTED FOR STEALING - A young man (whose name is purposely omitted) was arrested yesterday by Sergeant J. B. Angle,

The Changes in the Cabinet---Grant Stirring Up a Storm. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, July 11.-The resignation of Postmaster-General Jewell, at the request of the President, creates a great sensation, and is the leading topic of discussion in all public places to-night. Grant has not vouchsafed either to Mr. Jewell or his friends the motives that induced him to Senator Morton considered it necessary for the welfare of the Republican party in Indiana that a politician from that State should been favored in the change that has been made. Friends of Jewell say that the demand is an insult to a competent and unoffending official, and will Drowned.-Yesterday evening a little son have a bad effect on the party such it is, was the most summary act of the character that the Administration has performed, and naturally makes New England Republicans feel very sore. Jewell was regarded, since Bristow resigned, as the only representative of reform in the Cabinet. Pratt, who was another staunch friend of Bristow, has also been asked to step down and out, and will retire on the 1st of Au-gust next. Other changes are intimated as consisting chiefly of western men, was will be of officials in different parts of the

A Store Robbed and the Clerk Killed---The People Scouring the Country for the Murderers.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 11.-Persons who arrived here to-day from Glymont report that the store of Mr. Warring, about three miles from the Glymont wharf, was robbed, and the clerk, William Everett, brutally murdered last night. The murderers are as hood are in the most intense excitement, and | Turkish armies marching from Widdin and hence turned out en masse, and are scouring the country in every direction for them; and should they be found it is feared they will be lynched. It is supposed that the murderers are two negro men, both large, but one Niesa. Fresh troops are being constantly larger than the other, jet black, well dressed, apparently unused for some time at least to hard labor, who landed at Glymont yesterday from the steamer Harry Loder and in- of the Turks against the Servians is fully quired for Mr. Chapman's farm, saying they were going to work there. They did not go there, however, but went to Mr. Warring's store, where they bought cheese and crackers. While lounging about there they made inquiries of the negroes they saw concerning the store, its business, and the habits of the clerk. The murder was- not discovered until early this morning, when a young man went | main with a flotilla. to the store to make a purchase. Finding the front door locked he walked around to the back door, which he found open, and there being no response to his calls he ascended the steps to the sleeping-room and there saw the clerk lying in bed in his night clothes dead, his head having been mashed with a club. The deceased usually slept with his pocket-book and pistol under his pillow, but they were both gone.

General Crook's Command. A PAINFUL RUMOR UNCONFIRMED.

Омана, July 11.-Up to noon to-day there has been no confirmation received of the painful rumor that since the fall of General Custer the Indians had turned upon Genecluding himself. The officers at these headquarters say that such a calamity is possible though not probable.

O. 166. POSTMASTER-GENERAL

WELL RESIGNED WASHINGTON, D. C. By 11.-Recently Postmaster-General Jewell authorized the statement that he had other expectations than to remain in office till the 4th of March. Yesterday the Postmaster-General called on the President on business, and was informed that his resignation would be acceptable, and he immediately wrote it.

THE POSTMASTER-GENERALSHIP-JEW ELL'S SUCCESSOR-THE CHANGE MADE FOR POLITICAL EFFECT.

Washington, July 11 .- James M. Tyner, f Indiana, has been nominated Postmaster-General vice Jewell, resigned. Mr. Jewell declines giving conversations with Cabinet officers, or reasons for the removals beyond general ones. In answer to the question, "Was your reignation forced or voluntary?" he said: "Well, the President notified me that my resignation would be accepted and I tendered it." "Were any charges preferred against

"No, sir, not that I am aware of." It has transpired that the changes in the Cabinet were made for political reasons. It was supposed it would strengthen the Republicans in Indiana to have a citizen of that State in the Cabinet, while nothing was to be gained in Connecticut by retaining Mr. Jewell. The change was in accordance with Morton's views. Mr. Morton had a long interview with the President yesterday, and the new Postmaster-General had a conference with him to-day after the Cabinet meeting.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. WASHINGTON, July 11.-The Navy and Post-Office Departments were not represented in the Cabinet meeting to-day. Blaine's friends here have advices from his doctors expressing hope for his speedy and permanent restoration. The Judiciary Committee have decided to postpone the Blaine bond investigation until next fall.

ITALY'S CONGRATULATIONS. Washington, July 11 .- The President re ceived the following to-day:
"Victor Emanuel II., by the grace of God and the will of the people King of Italy, to My very dear and good friend,-On the day upon which the great American republic celebrates the centennial anniversary of its existence it is our desire to address our congratulations and those of our people to you personally, and to the nation over which you preside, and which, with admirable ability, you have succeeded in directing to its noble destiny. Neither the distance which separates nor any difference of race will ever weaken in us and in our people that firm friendship which unites us with the brave American nation, with which for a hundred years Italy has had relations productive of mutual esteem. We are inclined to convey to you these sentiments so much the more readily for the purpose of more worthily celebrating the memorable day by the monster exhibition at Philadelphia you were pleased to invite all the nations of the earth. Accept the assurance of the highest esteem and friendship, together with the prayers which we offer to God that He may have you, my very dear friend, in His holy keep-"Given at Rome on the 11th day of June, 1876.
